

Perfect in Every Way: But the Shadow of Doubt Won't Go Away (Paperback)

By James Y Brown

Outskirts Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We waited until graduate school was finished before starting our family. Our first son was declared to be a perfect specimen by our doctor, but doubts began to cloud our sky just as we were expecting our second son. Would the old family plague strike one or perhaps both of our sons? With deep resolve, we determined to help them find full and useful lives despite any physical handicap. Ron, our first born, was a real joy to watch as he explored all that life had to offer. His first love was model trains, but as his legs grew weaker, he moved from a passion for a clean environment to a determination to find a way to play an active role in the broadcasting world. We marveled at his ability to listen to TV and radio at the same time, and yet fully understand what was presented on both media. When his strength would not allow him to fulfill that dream, he turned to ways to make life more rewarding for the disadvantaged in our communities. The...
