In this collection of letters, speeches, and other writings by Lincoln, listeners can gain a uniquely intimate perspective on the sixteenth president of the United States. From personal letters to friends and family to Lincolns speeches as an Illinois state legislator and a United States Representative, from his first inaugural address to the Emancipation Proclamation and the famous Gettysburg Address, Lincoln addresses such important political issues as slavery and states rights and relates his personal views on marriage and depression. Also included are Lincolns eulogy for Henry Clay, a letter of condolence for one of the Civil Wars first casualties, the second inaugural address, Lincolns last public address, his last written words, and many more. A vital glimpse into the mind of one of Americas greatest statesmen, this is a must-listen for anyone interested in Lincolns life and legacy. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Audio CD.
