Excerpt: .to be followed by unloading a string of his cards upon the opponent s Talon or Discard. Suddenly the opponent says stop and the discomfited player realizes that he has not noticed that one of his cards is playable to the Foundation. The diagram and explanation which follow show one of the many opportunities which arise in Russian Bank; and also how a careless player may, by a thoughtless play, lose the chance to give his adversary a line of cards. Only the cards essential to the explanation are shown. In Diagram Twenty Red is playing. A Spade Jack shows at the top of Red s Talon and he knows that under it (face up) are several Spades which Blue has previously unloaded under Law P (c) and which, therefore, are all arranged to be played off in succession as soon as the...
