Always First Class: The Pleasure of Personal Letters (Paperback)

By Lois Barry

Best Letters Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 188 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Lois Barry, award-winning Professor English and Writing, has assembled an intriguing miscellany of letter-writing history, facts, quotations and writing suggestions. Nearly 200 quotations celebrate letter writing from Lord Byron's classic assertion that Letter writing is the only device for combining solitude with good company, to Kate Spade's modern appreciation, It's uplifting to get a letter like an ooh! in your mail box. Marianne Moore's enthusiastic report, I had a letter from Elisabeth [Bishop] a day or two ago, which I'm thinking of having tattooed on me balances Anne Sexton's poignant relief, I'm glad you wrote to me. I thought I had died or something, Ada Leveson cautions, You don't know a woman until you have received a letter from her, while John Donne romantically declares More than kisses, letters mingle souls. Chapters of quotations cover all aspects of correspondence: writing letters, receiving letters, saving letters, appreciating letters, waiting for letters, love letters and more. Always First Class combines entertaining reminders of old-fashioned letter writing for those of a...
