No sooner, however, did the Corn Mill panic get rumoured about, than they recurred with sinister emphasis to their old predictions, and their rumours brought about a run upon the Store. The humble directors said nothing, but quietly placed their cashier behind the counter with orders to pay every demand. One man, who had twenty-four pounds in the Store, the whole of which he had made from the profits, began with a demand for sixteen pounds. He had some sort of sympathy for his benefactors, and thought he would leave a little in their hands. Are you about to commence some sort of business? asked the cashier. No, said the man, but I want my money. Well, you are aware that notice is required? Oh, yes, and I am come to give notice. He would have hi...
