Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In front of that enchanted castle, waiting for the parade and fireworks, everybody s looking off to the east. Everybody s looking off to the east, so of course, not being too dumb, we start looking off to the east, too. And we catch drift real soon - there s about to be the launch of another space shuttle. Discovery! Here s how says it, Cape Canaveral Florida, March 15, 2009. Space Shuttle Discovery and its 7 member crew lifted off from NASA s Kennedy Space Center at 7:43 p.m. EDT Sunday, to deliver the final set of power generating solar array wings and a new crew member to the International Space Station. Do know, the majesty of the experience, watching it from that vantage point! It looked a lot like you see it on T.V. You ve seen it in London, UK, or in Sydney, Australia, or in Singapore, Singapore, or any other place in the world. It looked a lot like you see it on T.V. Except the majesty was just so much more! Saw it going up, saw the big clouds spumming out and actually believed we saw, and did see, the curve, and it was flying upside down, of course I couldn t see that. I learned that at Kennedy Space Center the following day. And then saw the 2 booster rockets drop off and, of course, they were aflame and glowing and they dropped into the ocean to be recycled, they ll be picked up. And they just kept on, kept on, kept on going until eventually it disappeared, just like on T.V. The majesty was great. And there was really nothing l...
