I Love to hear the neighing of my hens, At early morn when smoking at my ease; And I adore the roaring of my wrens Haunting the boughs of my ailanthus trees. T is sweet to hear the cackling of my cats, As o er the roof they indolently pass, And I revere the purring of the bats Attracted by the radiance of the gas. T is sweet to hear the buzzing of the goats And the shrill clucking of my favorite mare, While all my doves and linnets in their cotes Fill with loud trumpet-snorts the evening air. I dote upon the screaming of my sheep, And the fierce hissing of my English pups, And all the fibres in my body leap When my old jackass whistles as he sups. My spirit loves the braying of the owls; I jump with joy when my pet stallion bleats, And in the night my old canary s howls Fill me and thrill me with seraphic sweets. Reverie of a Crazy Farmer. 109 Nothing is nicer than my croaking cocks, And I can soar in heavenly realms beyond When all my mules chirp gaily on the rocks, Answered by bull-frogs snarling in the pond. Yes, it is sweet to listen to my cows Growling at sundown on the pastures dark, And with beatitude upon my brows, To hear my fattest hog s loud, honest bark. Such sounds have made me happy among...
