It wis the practice of gangs of pickpockets to have a child like tbis to commit trie robbery, andhand the plunder to them. Witness wenttojh is parents, who said he had been absentseven weeks, and they would have nothing tb dowitlvliim. i : !ie Mr. Baron Garrow, iufeelingterrnfj lamented that a child of such tender yearsshould be So depraved. . He added-- I suppose, , gentlemen, IHeed only ask you to deliver your verdict. --i His Lordship then observed that he would consult his learned brother, as tothettTtfiner the prisoner should be disposed ofi, uheyit length decided, that although it might seem harsh, the Court would record against him fourteen years transportation; and no doubt but government would place him in some school, where, if he behaved well, it would not be carried into full effect. I cannot dismiss this subject without returning thanks to the author of all good, that he should have strengthened the hearts of persons to venture, even their lives, to improve the condition of the prisoners in Newgate and elsewhere, and that females can be found, who will visit those abodes of vice and misery, to ameliorate the condition of their fellow-creatures; this is a lasting honor to their sex, and I trust they will always retain their pre-eminence in endeavouring to...
