Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Tenth Annual Report of the Boston Water Board: For the Year Ending December 31, 1885 The conduit across Farm pond was not completed October 1, 1885, as contracted for, and the contractors causing us great delay and annoyance, we took possession of the work December 1. We shall be able to complete it about June 1, 1886, within the appropriation. It has been our intention to complete the new High-Service Works during the year 1886, but as the contract for pumps has been declared void, a material delay must ensue. The main pipes have been purchased, and 6,500 feet were laid during the fall of 1885; the remainder will be laid the coming season. Work on the reservoir was begun in October, and is to be completed December 1, 1886. We think it unlikely that during the coming year we shall deem it necessary to undertake new work requiring any considerable outlay of money. We are investigating certain matters with respect to the condition of the aqueducts, and as to the improvement of the upper Sudbury waters, which may be developed during the coming season. On arriving at any definite conclusions, as a result of these investigations, we shall ask the City Council for the necessary appropriations. Water Rates. The estimates of expenses and revenue made at the beginning of the financial year have been confirmed by the results recorded elsewhere. According to the estimates, there would have accrued a surplus of about $120,000. As this surplus would have been taken from the consumers of water, and would have gone into the Sinking-Fund, where it is not required, we decided to reduce the water rates...
