INTERVIEW WITH MAJ RONNIE WILLIAMSON (PAPERBACK)

Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The S4 logistics officer with the 11th Air Defense Artillery Brigade, based at Fort Bliss, Texas, Major Ronnie Williamson deployed in support of Operation IRAQI FREEDOM in January 2003 and redeployed six months later. While in theater, his unit was stationed at the U.S. Air Force-owned Ali al Salim Air Base in Kuwait and was tasked primarily with protecting the installation and surrounding camps - via their Patriot Air and Missile Defense systems - from incoming SCUD missiles. During the period of major combat operations, Williamson and his unit engaged a total of eight Iraqi SCUDs and successfully destroyed them all. Looking back on his deployment, Williamson said that his biggest take-away was the importance of building relationships early on with the force with which space would be shared, in his case with the U.S. Air Force. He also appreciated the Military Decision-Making Process which, he felt, bonded the staff and enabled it to work more effectively with other units. During predeployment training, Williamson noted, working through the MDMP process caused some heated arguments amongst the staff. We were trying to do a lot in a little time. But once we got to combat operations, he added, those heated arguments helped pave the way for success.
