Excerpt: .but, after all it struck me that in its expression there was something of the Scotch prudence that realized the possibility, that even almost anticipated a negative answer. Now let me say to you in the words of a poet of my own race, the race that in matters of the heart never takes no for an answer: Come, come in the evening or come in the morning; Come when you re looked for or come without warning. The warmest of welcomes will be there before you, And the oftener you come, the more we ll adore you. (Applause.) THE PRESIDENT; Mr. Minister, I want again to thank you on behalf of the Association for your presence with us, and cordially to return the wish that we may visit you by saying that we hope you may be often with us. Ladies and Gentlemen, I want to call your attention on the last printed page in this programme, to the list of the officers and the Board of Governors, and I want to take occasion here to say that so far as the past year has been a successful one it is in no small degree due to the very, cordial co-operation of the vice-president of the Association; Mr. Albert D. Early; to the untiring industry and cordial support of Mr. Voigt, the secretary and treasurer, and to the loyal and painstaking efiorts upon the part of the Board of Governors, and I take...
