He recently gave $5,000 for a hospital in Liberia and was ready to stand back of any deficit that might come. Larger things may come from him when it comes to furnishing the departments for some special services to colored men. The fourth $1,000 came from Mr. Beckam, another man of large affairs, large visions, and large aims for the colored men. J. C. Napier, ex-register of the U. S. Treasury, gave $500, saying again, All I am I owe to the Nashville Association. Colored students meet in national convention May 13-17 at Kings Mountain, North Carolina, under the lead of John R. Mott. The splendid fight for an education put up by Richard A. Rice, secretary at Princeton, is an example to colored young men. He graduated from Cornell Law School last June, working his way through as a waiter at a fraternity house, where he bought the food and kept the books. He graduated from Lincoln University and Kennedy Normal, working his way all the time, beginning his studies when a farm boy in Tennessee cottonfields. In the World of Labor In the now famous Ford plant in Detroit, 80 of the 15,000 employes are foreigners. In the foundry all workers are foreigners and 90 per cent, of them cannot talk English. The Association has been asked to demonstrate its ability to teach them English at the company s expense. The Lawrence Association closed the class work for foreigners with a...
