

Negotiation: Communication for Diverse Settings

By Michael L. Spangle and Myra Warren Isenhart

Sage Publications, New Delhi, India, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. Negotiation is not formulaic. How we negotiate is determined largely by the context in which the negotiation process takes place. Negotiation: Communication for Diverse Settings provides the reader with a comprehensive overview of the negotiation process as it applies to a wide variety of contexts. Skillfully weaving practitioner interviews and real world examples throughout the book, Michael Spangle and Myra Warren Isenhart emphasize the day-to-day relevance of negotiation skill. The authors provide knowledge vital to successful negotiation in a variety of situations, including interpersonal relations, the workplace, shopping and other consumer settings, community relations, and international affairs. Discussions of the moral and ethical dilemmas of negotiation-as well as the detail provided in various sections, such as international negotiations will undoubtedly prove useful to novice and seasoned negotiators alike. Features of this text: - Takes a communication perspective, analyzing the negotiation process and how different settings and elements affect negotiation strategies and techniques - Discusses the cultural context of conflict - Introduces basic theoretical principles and practical steps in the negotiating process - Moves on a continuum from micro (interpersonal) to macro (international) levels of negotiation - Addresses the...
